A GUIDE TO USING YOUR POLICY

Your Insurance Policy has been written in clear language to help you understand better the insurance protection you have purchased.

This page is only a guide and you should always consult your Policy which is a legal contract between you and your insurance company.

When you read your Policy you will find that it contains four main sections:

1. The first deals with the insurance on your own property such as your home, furniture and other personal possessions;
2. The second deals with the insurance you have purchased to cover your responsibility for injury to other people or damage to their property;
3. The third section deals with other coverages;
4. The fourth section deals with the conditions that apply to the policy.

In order to have a better understanding of what your policy provides, you should take the following steps:

Section 1 deals with protection on your own property:

1. Check under the Coverages heading to find out what things are covered and if there are any special limits on those objects;
2. Check under the Insured Perils heading to find out if the event causing loss or damage is insured;
3. Check under the heading, Loss or Damage Not Insured;
4. Check the Coverage Summary page and Schedule of Articles Insured for amounts of insurance;
5. Check the Statutory and Policy Conditions, Endorsements and any other documents attached to your policy.

Section 2 deals with your responsibility to other people, such as a person falling and being injured on your property or damage to someone else's property.

Your protection under Coverage E applies when you are legally liable and includes a provision for your defence costs. Under Coverage F and G the policy provides a voluntary payment for another person's medical expenses or property damage even though you may not be legally liable.

Section 3 deals with other coverages. These coverages apply only if stated on the Coverage Summary page.

In order to have a better understanding of the protection you have purchased against such claims you should take the following steps:

1. Check Definitions;
2. Check under the various Coverage headings;
3. Check Special Limitations applicable to Section 2 for such things as: watercraft, motorized vehicles, business and business property;
4. Check Loss or Damage Not Insured under Section 2;
5. Check conditions applicable to Section 2;
6. Check Insurance Under More than One Policy, if that applies;
7. Check the Coverage Summary page and Schedule of Articles Insured for the amounts of insurance;
8. Check the endorsements and other coverages if any.

Reminder: This is only a guide and not part of your Policy. The agreement between you and your company is fully set out in the Policy.

COMPREHENSIVE HOMEOWNERS AGREEMENT

The Coverage Summary page summarizes the coverages and amounts of insurance we have agreed to provide and the period for which they are provided.

This policy consists of four Sections:

SECTION 1 describes the insurance for your property.
SECTION 2 describes the insurance for your legal liability to others because of bodily injury and property damage.
SECTION 3 describes optional coverages you may require to complete your insurance protection on property you own.
SECTION 4 is the Policy Conditions.

SECTION 1 — PROPERTY COVERAGE

COVERAGES

This insurance applies only to accidents or occurrences which take place during the term of this policy.

The amounts of insurance are shown on the Coverage Summary page. Each person insured is a separate Insured but this does not increase the limit of insurance.

COVERAGE E - PERSONAL LIABILITY

This is the part of the policy you look to for protection if you are sued.

We will pay all sums which you become legally liable to pay as compensatory damages because of unintentional bodily injury or property damage arising out of:

1. your personal actions anywhere in the world;
2. your ownership, use or occupancy of the premises defined in Section 2.

The amount of insurance shown on the Coverage Summary page is the maximum amount we will pay for all compensatory damages in respect of one accident or occurrence regardless of the number of claims made or the number of insureds against whom claims are made or actions are brought.

Defence costs and supplementary expense payments as described under Defence, Settlement, Supplementary Payments are in addition to the amount of insurance shown on the Coverage Summary page.

We do not insure claims made against you arising from:

1. liability you have assumed by contract unless your legal liability would have applied even if no contract had been in force;
2. damage to property owned by an insured;
3. damage to property used, occupied, leased or rented by or in the care, custody or control of an insured except for unintentional property damage to premises owned by others, or their contents, which you are using, renting or have in your custody or control caused by fire, explosion, water damage or smoke. 4. damage to personal property or fixtures as a result of work done on them by you or anyone on your behalf;
5. bodily injury to you or to any person residing in your household other than a residence employee;
6. the personal actions of a named insured who does not reside on the premises described on the Coverage Summary page;
7. punitive or exemplary damages, meaning that part of an award by a court which is in excess of compensatory damages and is stated or intended to be a punishment to you.

There are other exclusions that apply to all Coverages under Section 2. Please refer to "Exclusions – Loss or Damage Not Insured".

Defence, Settlement, Supplementary Payments

We will defend you against any suit which makes claims against you for which you are insured under Coverage E and which alleges bodily injury or property damage and seeks compensatory damages, even if it is groundless, false or fraudulent. We reserve the right to investigate, negotiate and settle any claim or suit if we decide this is appropriate.

In addition to the limit of insurance under Coverage E, we will pay:

1. all expenses which we incur;
2. all costs charged against you in any suit insured under Coverage E;
3. any interest accruing after judgment on that part of the judgment which is within the amount of insurance of Coverage E;
4. premiums for appeal bonds required in any insured lawsuit involving you and bonds to release any property that is being held as security, up to the amount of insurance, but we are not obligated to apply for or provide these bonds;

This coverage is available even if you are not legally liable. Medical expenses include surgical, dental, hospital, nursing, ambulance service and funeral expenses. Medical expenses for residence employees are insured.

The amount of insurance shown on the Coverage Summary page is the maximum amount we will pay for each person in respect of one accident or occurrence.

- (b) your medical expenses or those of persons residing with you, other than residence employees;
- (c) medical expenses of any person covered by any worker's compensation statute.

You are not insured for claims arising out of the ownership, use or operation of any motorized vehicle, trailer or watercraft, except those for which coverage is shown in this policy.

You shall arrange for the injured person, if requested, to:

1. give us, as soon as possible, written proof of claim, under oath if required;

3. authorize us to obtain medical or other records.

Within 60 days after the loss, you must submit to us (under oath if required) a PROOF OF LOSS FORM containing the following information:

1. the amount, place, time and cause of loss;
2. the interest of all persons in the property affected;
3. the actual cash value of the property at the time of loss.

If necessary, you must help us verify the damage.

VOLUNTARY COMPENSATION FOR RESIDENCE EMPLOYEES

We offer to pay the benefits described below if your employee is injured or dies accidentally while working for you, even though you are not legally liable.

If your employee does not accept these benefits or sues you, we may withdraw our offer, but this will not affect your legal liability insurance.

An employee who accepts these benefits must sign a release giving up any right to sue you. We have the right to recover from anyone, other than you, who is responsible for the employee's injury or death.

An injured employee will, if requested:

1. submit to physical examination at our expense by doctors we select as often as we may reasonably require;
